MURDERERS RUN TO GROUND

MEN WHO KILLED GEORGE MARCUS NICHOLS ARRESTED.

Identified by a Tattooed Star---Reward of $4,500 Offered for Each—Prisoner Denies.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 2.—A star tattooed over the initials "C. B." was discovered today on the right arm of the man who was arrested here as James Tierney but who is believed by the authorities to be Charles A. Boinay, who is wanted for the murder of George Marcus Nichols. Tierney answers the discription telegraphed over the country although he has shaved off his mustache. During an engagement of a circus here last week Tierney had a star tattooed over the initials by one of the show attendants.

The prisoner denies everything that identifies him with Boinay but the authorities are confident he is the man wanted.

Police are Confident.

CLEARFIELD, Penn., Sept. 2.—There is no doubt in the minds of the police here that "James Dougherty" is David Weeks, one of the two men on whose heads a reward of $4,500 has been set for the murder of George Marcus Nichols at Daniels Farms, Trumbull county, July 22.

He is now in jail here and insists that his name is Dougherty and claims his Sangerties, New York, as his home.

His statement that he worked for Whittaker and Irwin at Corwensville, near here, from early in June to the thirteenth instant, is untrue. He only worked there five days.

A BURSTED DYNAMO.

The Building Burned and Employes Fled for Their Lives.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

TROY, Sept. 2.—The big electric dynamo at the Maning & Paine paper mills, on Upper river street, burst this morning with a loud report. Flames spread rapidly and the employees were forced to leave the building without stopping the machinery.

Many men will be thrown out of employment by the fire. The total loss will be over $1,000,000. The building was pretty thoroughly covered by insurance.

Monster Water Spouts.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2. The steamer El Rio, which arrived from New Orleans today, reports that on yesterday while on the northwest edge of the gulf stream the ship passed between several monster water spouts.

It was with great difficulty that the vessel was kept clear of them.

A Mysterious Disappearance.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 2.—Mrs. Church P. Garel mysteriously disappeared yesterday morning. The police fear she has suicided by jumping into the river. She took her baby with her, and it is thought to have been drowned in its mother's arms.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

GENEVA, Switzerland, Sept. 2,—A dispatch received here from Montreoux, fourteen miles away, announces that an insane asylum which was in course of erection there has collapsed, burying a number of workingmen in the ruins.

Seven bodies have been taken out, up to the sending of this message, all killed.

Seven others are seriously injured from the wrecking of the building.

Corn Crop Matured and no Further Damage Feared from Frost.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 2.—The hot weather of the past few davs has matured the corn crop of this state. There is no further danger from frost.

The thermometer today stood at a hundred degrees all over the state of Nebraska.

Preparing to Punish Tribesmen.

BOMBAY, Sept. 2.—Military movements are reported from many places, and rapid progress is made in the organization of the punitive expeditions being sent against the insurgent tribesmen.

Col Gordon's column of troops from Peshawur has arrived safely at Kohat, without having met any opposition on the part of the insurgents.

The Afridis, according to the latest reports, having apparently left the Khyber pass.

The British posts at Gazabund, Beluchistan, which was held by native levies, was attacked Sunday night last by a number of Brahuis, who murdered and robbed the levies and some travelers who had sought refuge there.

Many new signs of dissatisfaction are reported from various points along the Indian harbor.

Miners are Taking it Easy.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 2.—Everything is quiet about the striking miners' camps in the De Armitt region today. The strikers have decided to take things easy, pending definite news from the Columbus conference with regard to the proposed settlement upon some other than an unqualified sixty cent basis.

The general talk among the men shows no discouragement, but on all sides is heard the opinion that the operators are being hard pushed in the matter of holding contracts. They are said to be getting into deeper straits every day.

Railroad Wreck in Texas.

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 1.—Near Appleby station last night the tracks of the sleeper on the southbound Houston, East and West Texas passenger train jumped the track near a curve, carrying the sleeper and day coach off the track, demolishing both. By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Assistant Secretary of State Adee has gone to Europe for a two months vacation. He will spend it bicycling through France.

TO FIX RATE BY ARBITRATION

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CONSIDERING OPERATORS' OFFER.

Possible That an Agreement May be Reached on Present Basis of Negotiations.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

COLUMBUS, Sept. 2.—An unexpected feature of the meeting of the executive committee of the United Mine Workers was the arrival today of a number of coal mine owners from the Pittsburg district.

The committee resumed consideration of the operators' offer of sixty-four cents per ton, pending the fixing of a permanent rate by arbitration.

The operators are understood to be here by invitation of President Ratchford. It is confidently believed that their presence will do much to smooth over the difficulties in the way of a final agreement.

A New Hospital.

Dr. W. H. Brooks has rented the residence of Mrs. Selven on Church street, adjoining the residence occupied by him, and will establish there a modern hospital. He proposes to equip it with all the latest appliances such as electric batteries, X-ray machines, etc. Special attention will be given to woman patients and to surgery.

He proposes to have the hospital ready by September 10th and will be able to accommodate from 12 to 15 patients. Trained nurses will be employed and the hospital will be first-class at all points.

The time has come when every city and town should have a hospital and we are glad to note that the need of Greensboro in this particular will be so well supplied.

In the Temple of Justice.

Business has been moving right well in court today, though several cases yet remain to be disposed of before court adjourns.

Sim McIver, Cicero Mitchell and Will Wagstaff were up for gambling and were adjudged guilty. Sentence has not yet been passed.

A bill of indictment was also found against Lewis Galloway, Moses McDaniel, Henry Liggins and Will Dilland for the same offense. The verdict of the jury in this case was not guilty.

State vs. Lewis Farrington, larceny, was also adjudged to be not guilty.

Ats Miller was tried for assault with a deadly weapon and found guilty. He was given six months on the county roads.

The Horse Recovered.

Tatum & Taylor received a telegram from Julian this morning saying: "Come and identify your horse." Bob Whittington left on the early morning train for Julian and returned this afternoon at about four o'clock with the hurse.

It is not known what became of Hornady, the fellow who rode off the horse.

Court Nearly Over.

This term of court is nearly over, and yet many cases remain to be tried. The entire time so far has been consumed on the state docket, and it is not yet finished. It is probable that one day will be spent on the motion docket and court will then adjourn without taking up the civil docket.

Meeting Thursday Night.

The Retail Merchants' Protective Association will hold a meeting in the mayor's office at the city market Thursday night at 8:30 o'clock. It is desired that every member be present, as there is business of importance to come before the association.

Death of a Mason.

Mr. Eames Wagoner, who resided on Arlington street, died this morning at an advanced age. He had only recently moved to the city and was the purchaser of the Dillard property.

He was a Mason and will probably be buried by that fraternity.

Deed of Assignment.

A. H. Price left last night for the eastern part of the state where he will register a deed of assignment from the Southern railway company to the Central Trust company of New York. The deed assigns the Southern's lease of the North Carolin railroad to the Central Trust comyany as security for the bonds held by the latter.—Salisbury World.

THE SAME OLD WEAPON.

One Negro Badly Cut by Another Last Night.

Last night two negroes, Cornelius Gant and Arthur Morehead, got into a row on West Market street, and it came near ending fatally to Morehead. It seems that the disturbance was caused by a woman, the cause of so much strife and discord in the world.

As far as we could learn Gant has a wife from whom he has been separated for some time, and it was on her account bad feeling was stirred up between the two men.

They were standing on the sidewalk near Barker's store quarreling, when Gant jerked out a razor and struck at Morehead with it, inflicting a terrible wound. It was a slash wound and started in the ear, coming down the side of his face and ending in the middle of his under lip. The wound laid open the side of Morehead's face, cutting the arteries and exposing the tongue and teeth to view. Had the wound gone about half an inch lower it would have struck the juglar vein, when death would have ensued immediately. The wound bled profusely.

Morehead was taken around to Dr. Brooks, who treated him skillfully and he is now doing as well as could be expected. Dr. Brooks took eleven stitches in the wound.

HOW ABOUT THIS?

The Farmers Without a Market for Their Wheat.

A gentleman, who should know what he is talking about, tells us that farmers are bringing their wheat to Greensboro and offering it for sale, but find no sale. This speaks badly for our city and is tough on the farmers, to say the least of it, just now when wheat is bringing a good stiff price.

Our informant tells us that the roller mill, which has been purchasing the farmers wheat, is to shut down soon and suggests that, this being the case, Greensboro would be a most excellent location for a roller mill.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1897.

You can get the telegraphic news twelve hours earlier in THE TELEGRAM than in any paper that gets into Greensboro, and for four dollars a year less.

THE northern papers, in commenting on the large number of Southern merchants making purchases in the various cities, should not attach too much importance to that, as an indication of prosperity. It is not the facility with which bills are made, but the ease with which they are paid that indicates plenty of the wherewithal. It is by no means certain that this much buying is a good thing in the end. One mistake the people of this country have made already is buying too much. While it is unquestionable that affairs are mending, let our people remember that newspaper welcomes to the godess of plenty do not extinguish debts, at this fag-end of the century. If the citizen will keep his expense account at the hard times notch for a while yet, he will find good times much more inclined to abide with him. The practical application of a few of "Poor Richard's" homely maxims would be no less efficacious than dollar wheat and ten cent cotton in putting the country on its feet again.

THE new Raleigh blue laws, which stop the sale of soda water on Sundays, have set our esteemed contemporary, the Press-Visitor, to talking deep, scarlet anarchy like a labor leader. The Press-Visitor should not mind suffering a little for the sake of others. The way in which this potent beverage was wrecking and shattering the constitutions of Raleigh's gilded youths called for prompt measures of paternal repression. No amount of soda water would hurt the Press-Visitor, but it should remember the weaker brother.

THE factional riot in the Democratic convention in Pennsylvania was an excellent example of "Much Ado About Nothing." The Democrats have about the same chance to carry that state as the Republicans have to carry Arkansas. When men are so keen for an honor that is wholly empty, it is not surprising that there is a scramble when there is pie on the board.

THE section of West Market street which is not macadamized is being worked in accordance with the suggestion in Friday's TELEGRAM. Our street commissioners deserve credit for their efforts to give us the best streets the funds available will permit.

GOVERNOR O'FERRALL'S intimation that Virginia may go Republican in 1900 is scarcely likely to produce a panic in the "Mother of States." It will be remembered that the Roanoke convention was not very hearty in its endorsement of the governor.

SENATOR GORMAN finds bossing Maryland politics so easy that he has turned his attention to lawn fetes for amusement. This exquisite bit of irony has thrown even the staid old Baltimore Sun into an appoplectic rage.

IF SPAIN is burdened with anarchists that she is at a loss to dispose of, she might make them up into a company and send them out to Cuba. The insurgents and yellow fever will leave little to be desired.

THE fellow in Lynchburg whose jawbone was broken in a family quarrel, should have remembered that there is a limit to the endurance of even the human nether maxillary, though it is pretty far removed in some cases.

WE respectfully call the attention of the Charlotte News' snake editor to that serpentine yarn that comes from Wadesboro. The gauntlet has lain long enough.

PERRY BELMONT is quoted as saying that Populism is the child of Republicanism. In North Carolina the Populists are beginning to find Republicanism the worst of step-fathers.

CAPTAN GENERAL WEYLER has resumed operations—on the typewriter. Another victory over the insurgents is the result, of course.

GENERAL NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

The debt of the city of New York is nearly $200,000,000.

The National Farmers' Congress began its session at St. Paul, Minn.

There was frost Monday night in Michigan, Minnessota, North Dakota and Iowa.

The total wheat crop of Canada this year will be fully 60,000,000 bushels of prime wheat.

The annual convention of the Catholic Young Men's National Union began in Boston.

The first session of the British Medical Association, to be held in Canada, opened in Montreal.

The Virginia Glass Works, in Alexandria, will resume operations today, giving employment to seventy people.

Surgeon-General Sternburg, of the United States Army, claims to be the original discoverer of the yellow fever germ.

It is reported that the striking coal miners will resume work pending a decision by arbitrators of the questions at issue.

Further testimony was taken at Chicago in the trial of Adolph L. Luetgert, who is accused of killing his wife and destroying her body.

The National Republican League met at Chicago and decided upon campaign plans for Maryland, Virginia and other states.

The Englander family, of whom there are over 1,500 members in New York, proposes starting an insurance company solely for its own members.

In an interview, Governor O'Ferral says he will not, under present conditions, support the ticket nominated by the Virginia democratic convention.

The discriminating duty provision of the tariff law is said to give the Attorney-General much concern. He may wait for Congress to decide what is the meaning of the section.

The attempt of the Platt republican organization to bring about an anti-Tammany conference on the Greater New York mayoralty with the Citizens' Union and other politieal bodies was a failure.

Consul-General Lee telegraphs from Havana that Evangelina Cisneros is not of noble birth, as stated, but the daughter of a poor but respectable Cuban, and one of a family of five or six children.

President Faure arrived in Paris from Russia and while crowds of people were cheering him a bomb was exploded within the railing of the church of the Madeleine. No person was injured. Two persons were arrested.

General Linares, in the Province of Santiago de Cuba, has been engaged with an insurgent force. The enemy lost two men killed and the troops lost thirteen men killed, including two captains. The horse of General Linares was struck by two bullets and killed.

The judge advocate general of the War Department has rendered an opinion holding that certificates of honor are to be granted to all who were employed in maintaining and operating military telegraph lines during the civil war, including operators and messengers.

The democratic State convention of Pennsylvania met at Reading and recommended James M. Guffy, of Pittsburg, as Wm. F. Harrity's successor in the democratic national committee. Walter E. Ritter was nominated for auditor-general and M. E. Brown for state treasurer. At one stage of the proceedings some of the delegates engaged in a free fight on the stage.

THE CORPORATION OBJECTS.

President Andrews is Requested to Withdraw His Resignation.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 1.—The corporation of Brown University voted today, after a long meeting, to request President Andrews to withdraw his resignation as president of the institution. The request was embodied in a resolution containing the following:

"The President of Brown University: The corporation of the University has this day received, with the greatest regret, your resignation as president. It most earnestly desires that you will withdraw it. It conceives that it was written without full knowledge of the position of the corporation. With the earnest hope that a statement to you, bearing the formal sanction and approval of the governing body of the University as a whole, may bring us into hearty accord, the corporation desires to assure you that it in no way sought the severance of our official relations, which, so far as is known, have been most cordial from the time of your acceptance of the presidency."

The vote on the subject was practically unanimous, and taken after speeches had been made by nearly every member of the corporation.

Before the vote was taken a letter was read from ex-Secretary of State Olney, strongly deprecating the former action of the corporation.

In addition to this, the now famous protest of 25 of the faculty of Brown, and a number of petitions, including one from college professors and public men, asking for the retention of President Andrews, were also presented and read.

Strike Leaders in Jail.

DUBOIS, Pa., Sept. 1.—Three of the strike leaders, who by intimidation and threats of violence, prevented the Adrian miners from working Monday, were arrested today by Sheriff Burns and are now in Brooklyn jail.

Further arrests will follow. The three men were armed with pistols and knives.

The delegation convention here today was held behind closed doors, and was not productive of result. The delegates met soon after 1 o'clock, and adjourned to give the committee time to formulate resolutions.

The second session lasted until evening and adjourned at 9 o'clock. A seal was placed on the lips of every delegate before adjournment, and not a word has escaped as to what was the sentiment of the convention. Nothing will be given out until the final adjournment.

McLaurin Will be Senator.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 1.—Full returns of yesterday's election for United States Senator come in with exasperating slowness, but these only go to increase McLaurin's majority. The latest reports show McLaurin's majority to be 11,865 on a total vote reported of 39,200. Evans has 8,825 and Irby 4,738. The total vote cast may not exceed 48,900, and McLaurin's majority will be increased.

Evans this morning conceded his defeat and blamed Tillman for confusing the minds of the voters as to McLaurin's position on the tariff.

Irby, who is at his home in Laurens tonight, declared that Tillman had lied to him, and made threats of personal violence should they meet.

DEATH OF MISS TUCKER.

After a Lingering Illness She Passes Peacefully Away.

Miss Callie Tucker, whose extreme illness has been noted in these columns, passed quietly away this morning at 3:30. While her death came not unexpected, it is nevertheless a cause of great sorrow to her loved ones and the large number who delighted to call her their friend.

Miss Tucker was taken ill just nine weeks ago with typhoid fever, and after the fever left her, some stomach trouble followed, which caused her death. She had been at death's door for some time, and loved ones and friends have been watching by her bedside for days and nights, expecting the grim messenger at any time.

Miss Tucker was the eldest of a family of nine children and is the first one of the family to die. Her father, mother, two brothers and three sisters were with her when death came.

She was a sister of E. R. Tucker, of the firm of Erwin & Tucker, and a niece of John H. Rankin, of this city. Her father and mother live at Pleasant Garden, eight miles south of this city, to which place the remains will be carried for interment tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

She was a consistent member of the Methodist church, and she will be sadly missed by a large circle of friends.

ALMOST A CONFLAGRATION.

What Might Have Been a Serious Fire Discovered Just in Time.

Mr. J. D. Burch, who lives on East Market street, came near being burned out of house and home last night about 8 o'clock. A young lady who lives at Mr. Burch's started to light a lamp in a room upstairs, and as she struck a match the mosquito netting over a bed caught fire, and in an instant the whole room was in a blaze.

Mr, Burch ran up stairs and threw the burning material out of the window and soon had the fire extinguished. But while he wat doing this little Charlie Tatum, who lives near Mr. Burch, ran around to the hose house of the Eagle Hose Company and gave the alarm.

Before Mr. Burch was aware of the fact that anyone knew of the fire the Eagle boys were at his gate and had attached a line of hose to a plug and were ready to fight fire.

Happily the fire was extinguished before they were needed, but it was certainly good work on the part of the Eagles, and Mr. Burch feels very grateful to them.

Only a Medicine Man.

The habitues of the Benbow were set agog by a strange apparition this morning. He had taffy colored locks hanging down his back for half a yard and a sombrero big enough to shelter a lemonade vender, and the rest of his get-up in keeping. While bets were being made as to whether he was an anarchist, a football player, a cowboy, a musician or a belated spring poet, he approached Clerk Hamner, who promptly prepared to crawl under the desk, and announced himself a fledgling Indian medicine man.

Will It Stand?

Attorney General Walser was in Winston yesterday and while there gave his opinion as to the odious law passed by the last legislature, whereby a man is to be imprisoned for the nonpayment of his taxes. Mr. Walser does not understand the meaning of the law as passed by the legislature, but does not think it unconstitutional.

Sprung a Leak.

One of the water pipes on Clay street, just alongside of J. S. Cobb & Co's prize house, has a leak in it, but the water company is having a good deal of trouble in locating it. A force of hands have been at work all day and have made six or eight excavations without finding the leak.

Hour Changed.

The hour for holding the regular Wednesday evening prayer meetings at the First Presbyterian church has been changed from 8:30 to 8 o'clock. The congregation will make a note of this and be on time next Wednesday evening.

A Lively Tennis Game.

Those who went out to the courts of the tennis club Tuesday afternoon were treated to as warm a game of amateur tennis as one usually runs up against. It was a game of doubles between Lee Wharton and Hal Mebane on one side of the net, and Stephen A. Douglas and Simpson Schenck, on the other.

The former won all three of the sets, the score being: 6 to 1, 6 to 2 and 6 to 4; the score, however, does not show the game nearly so close as it realy was, since nearly every game was won out from the deuce point. Some of the scratch returns were worthy of professionals and won liberal applause from the spectators. Now let some tourneys be arranged with other towns.

It has been decided to make the tobacco fair to be held in Winston the first week in November more extensive than was at first planned. A stock exhibit will be one of the attractions added.

POINTS FROM HIGH POINT.

Personal and Local Affairs Briefly Mentioned.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Sept. 2, '97.

The incubator rooms of the Vernon Poultry Yards, owned by J. M. Hedgecock, were slightly damaged by fire last night.

Rev. Mr. Crater and bride nee Miss Laura Morris, of Asheboro, passed through the city last night en route to Hot Springs.

The National Bank of High Point placed an order Tuesday for a solid steel burglar proof safe.

The reception to be given in honor of the new members by the W. C. T. U. will take place this evening at eight o'clock.

The remains of Mr. William Myers were taken to Thomasville this morning for interment.

Mrs. S. Perry came very near meeting with a serious accident this morning while attempting to drive across the railroad track. Some box cars prevented her seeing the approaching train. A colored man stopped the horse just in time to prevent the accident.

For Resisting an Officer.

A case that excited considerable interest was called in court yesterday afternoon. The defendants in the case were Arthur Thompson, Cicero Davis, Bemar Crouch and James Welch, all of High Point, who were indicted for resisting an officer—J. T. Bennett, High Point's chief of police.

Good legal talent was employed on both sides, but the evidence was not considered sufficient to warrant a verdict of guilty, so the defendants were discharged.

Remember the lawn party tonight.

THE JAIL MATTER AGAIN.

It Will be Brought Before the County Commissioners.

In the report of the grand jury, published in yesterday's TELEGRAM, reference is again made to the old rotten concern that answers the purpose of Guilford county's jail.

The report says the building is both unsafe and unhealthy, and yet this is just what has been said of our county prison for years.

It is to be hoped that the commissioners will take some action in the matter, for it is high time that a more decent and secure place be provided in which to confine our prisoners.

Some might raise an objection to building a new jail on account of the expense involved, yet it is quite probable that more than enough money to build a jail has been expended for guards, while if we had a substantial jail no guards would be required.

Lawn party tonight.

Only Two Witnesses.

Only two witnesses were examined in the Luetgert trial yesterday. Odorofsky, an employe of the factory, testified to examining a suspicious substance that had been boiled in a vat and could see small pieces of bone and what appeared to be particles of flesh.

Go out to the lawn party at J. H. Neese's tonight and help a good cause.
